

JON OSSOFF FOR SENATE

FIGHTING FOR WORKING FAMILIES. Ossoff will fight for working people and our right to form unions. He will work to lower taxes for working families, oppose bad trade deals, bring back good union jobs, hold corporations accountable and create safe work conditions. (Campaign website, accessed 9/17/20)

SUPPORTING AFFORDABLE EDUCATION. A good economy requires a prepared workforce. Ossoff will seek to expand access to skills-based training and vocational schools. He is committed to making public universities, state colleges and trade schools 100% debt-free. (Forsyth County News, 2/27/20)

INVESTING IN INFRASTRUCTURE. Improving our infrastructure is good for our economy and quality of life. Ossoff supports investing in our roads, bridges, electric grid, ports, energy and many other projects that would create thousands of jobs for working Americans. (CNBC, 7/26/20)

JON OSSOFF AND RAPHAEL WARNOCK

FIGHTING FOR PROSPERITY AND GROWTH FOR GEORGIA'S WORKING FAMILIES

RAPHAEL WARNOCK FOR SENATE

STRENGTHENING OUR ECONOMY. Warnock will fight to rebuild an economy that prioritizes workers, not CEOs. He supports fair wages, small businesses, equitable employment practices, protected retirement and incentivizing American-made manufacturing. (Candidate website, accessed 9/17/20)

EXPANDING ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE. Affordable and accessible health care is a top priority for Warnock. He is committed to a public option for health insurance, protections for preexisting conditions, Medicaid expansion and lowering drug costs. (The Augusta Chronicle, 8/20/20)

PROTECTING YOUR UNION. Warnock strongly supports unions and our right to form them. He will fight to end "right to work" in Georgia, defend pro-worker values, promote safe work conditions and work to create high-paying union jobs. (The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, 9/10/20)
