

Economists Agree: More Jobs, Quicker Recovery under Joe Biden, Democratic Senate

Two economic outlooks, two very different outcomes: a second Trump term or a Joe Biden administration.

Biden won – but more jobs and full employment only happen if Jon Ossoff and Raphael Warnock win on January 5.

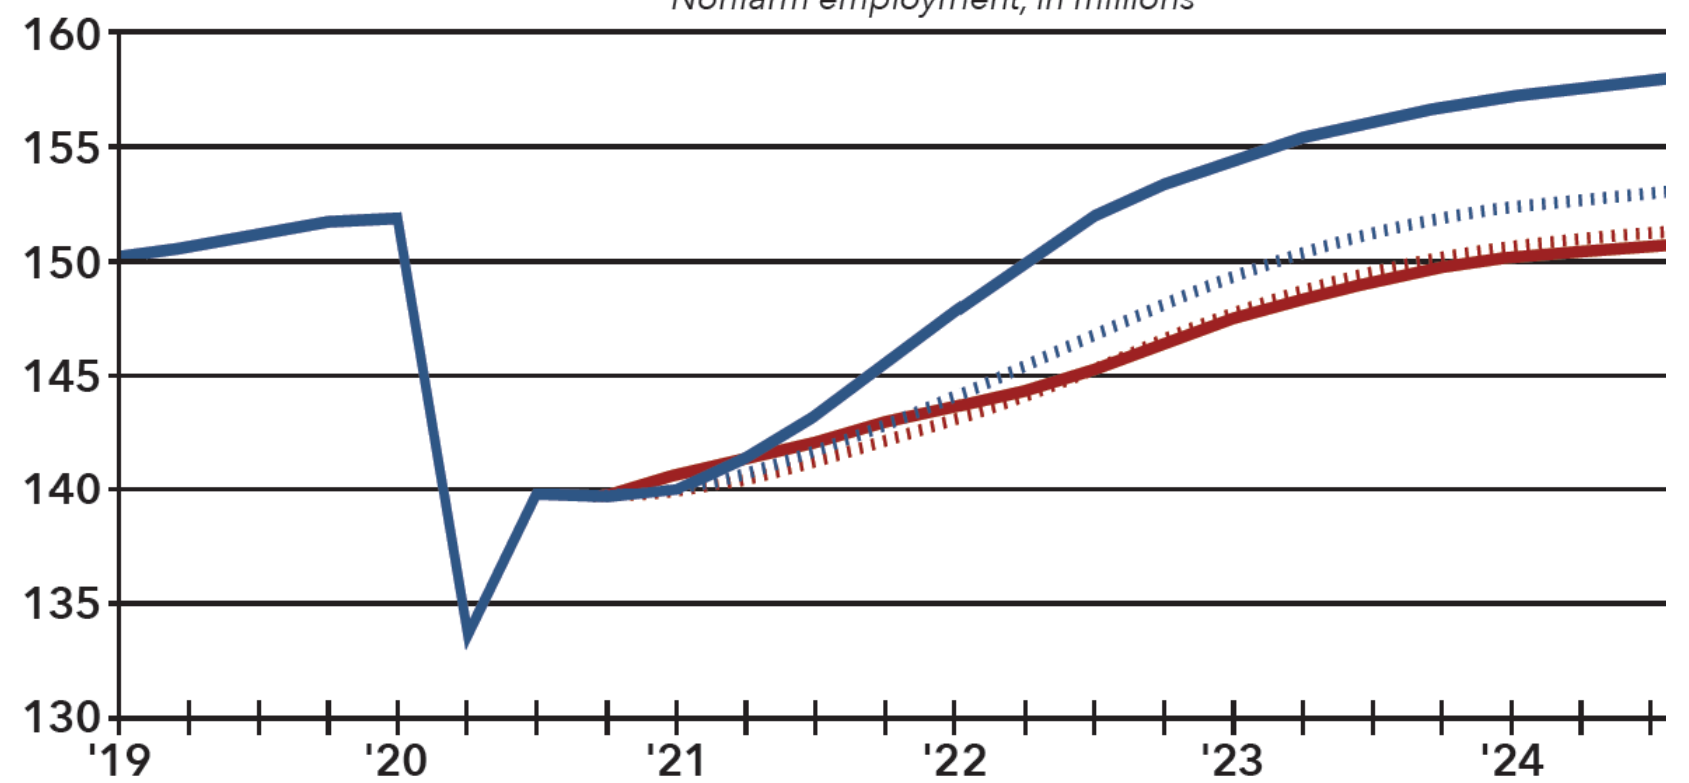

Without the Senate, there will be no infrastructure bill, no coronavirus relief, no Build Back Better.

Jon Ossoff and Raphael Warnock equal JOBS. David Perdue and Kelly Loeffler equal GRIDLOCK.

JOBS UNDER DIFFERENT ELECTION SCENARIOS
Nonfarm employment, in millions

Scenario 1	Scenario 2
REPUBLICANS: HIGHER UNEMPLOYMENT AND A WEAKER ECONOMY	DEMOCRATS: MORE JOBS, FULL EMPLOYMENT. With a Senate majority, President-elect Joe Biden can get our economy back on track
 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Growth outlook: Economy sputters out of COVID-19 crisis, unemployment stays high • “Economic outlook is weakest under a scenario in which Republicans fully adopt their economic agenda... Unemployment remains persistently higher and labor force participation rate never fully recovers from pre-pandemic levels.”^[1] 	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jobs created in a Biden presidency: 18.6 million^[2] • Growth outlook: Economy returns to full employment • “The economic outlook is strongest under the scenario in which Biden and Democrats sweep Congress and fully adopt their economic agenda. The economy is expected to create 18.6 million jobs during Biden’s term and the economy returns to full employment. More of the benefits from the stronger economy under Biden’s policies go to workers.” • “Bidenomics would provide the U.S. economy with a booster shot as it recovers from the global coronavirus recession.”^[3] --Oxford economist Nancy Vanden Houten

Scenario 1

Scenario 2

Sen. David Perdue and Senator Kelly Loeffler vote against COVID-19 relief, infrastructure and union rights

John Ossoff and Rev. Raphael Warnock are proponents of Joe Biden's vision

- Perdue supports Senate Republicans' inadequate HEALS Act, a bill that cuts the $600 in weekly unemployment benefits, does nothing to keep workers safe and instead only protects corporations from liability^[5]
- Loeffler and Perdue are co-sponsors on the SAFE to Work Act that limits the liability for companies who have not followed COVID-19 precautions^[13]

- Ossoff: "We need President-elect Joe Biden and Vice President-elect Kamala Harris to be able to govern, to get us out of this mess...to invest in infrastructure and clean energy. If we don't win these Senate races it will be gridlock in Washington."^[4]
 - Supports a ramping up of spending for relief to Georgia's working families^[8]
- Warnock pledges to listen to the experts to take steps to get the coronavirus under control, including supporting robust testing, contact tracing, and basic preventive safety like the use of face masks^[15]

- Perdue voted against the last comprehensive infrastructure package, the FAST Act that funds our nation's transit systems, highways, bridges and rail networks^[6]
- Loeffler voted against a bill that extended the FAST Act, an important surface transportation program that was set to expire. Without this extension all federal grant programs would have been left without funding during the COVID-19 pandemic^[14]

- Ossoff has stated that he supports the most ambitious infrastructure program in history^[8]
- Warnock believes reinvesting in a clean economy based on green transportation and energy infrastructure, we can create good, family-sustaining jobs that will prepare us for the 21st century^[23]

Perdue voted for an amendment that would prohibit the use of PLAs on projects with federal funding^[7]

Ossoff and Warnock supports the Protecting the Right to Organize Act^{[11][16]}

Perdue and Loeffler co-sponsored S.525, the National Right-to-Work Act^[9] and Perdue co-sponsored S.2630, the Davis-Bacon Repeal Act^[10]

Ossoff will expose and attack unfair and unethical trade and labor practices^[8]

Perdue co-sponsored a bill that would prevent federal agencies and recipients of federal funding from requiring contractors to sign PLAs^[12]

Warnock pledges to end right-to-work status in Georgia and to "bring pro-worker values to Washington"^[15]
