CHARGES FILED WITH THE INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL AGAINST JAMES B. RUDOLPH, RETIRED MEMBER OF LOCAL UNION 134

On June 26, 2007, charges were filed with the International Executive Council against James B. Rudolph for violations of Article XI, Section 6(d) and Section 8 and Article XXV, Section 1(a), (e), and (f) of the IBEW Constitution, by Dennis W. Mahoney, a member and Business Representative of IBEW Local Union 134, Chicago, Illinois.

After a thorough review of the facts presented by the hearing officer assigned by the International Office to investigate the matter, it is the determination of the International Executive Council that Brother Rudolph is guilty of the charges brought against him.

It is further determined, by the International Executive Council, that as a result, we are directing the International Secretary-Treasurer to suspend Brother Rudolph's Pension Benefit Fund benefits immediately. Brother Rudolph is hereby directed to return all PBF benefits paid through remittance to the International Secretary-Treasurer's office for the Pension Benefit Fund covering the months of June 2007 through the suspension date of December 12, 2007. In addition, Brother Rudolph is directed to re-institute his membership through payment of per-capita from June 2007, ad-indefinitum until such time that work is ceased as prohibited by
